

Prof. Mohammad Abdulkader Akbarsha is i) Gandhi-Gruber-Doerenkamp Chair of Doerenkamp-Zbinden Foundation (DZF), Switzerland, @ Mahatma Gandhi-Doerenkamp Centre (MGDC) for Alternatives, Bharathidasan University, Tiruchirappalli, India; ii) Biomedical Scientist and Research Coordinator @ National College (Autonomous), Tiruchirappalli, India; and iii) Honorary Advisor, Jamal Vaccine Research Centre, Jamal Mohamed College, Tiruchirappalli, India. He holds Ph.D. in Zoology from University of Madras, India. His 50 year long Journey in research included comparative endocrinology, reproductive biology, in vitro drug screening for cancer, in vitro toxicology, novel cell culture techniques, alternative model organisms, etc. He has more than 300 publications including reviews and reports. He is Editorial Board Member of ALTEX and Review Editor of Frontiers in Toxicology. He holds awards from Society for Reproductive Biology and Comparative Endocrinology (India); Indian Society for the Study for Reproduction and Fertility; All India Institute of Medical Sciences, New Delhi; Jamal Mohamed College, Tiruchirappalli, India; Society for Advancement of Biological Sciences, Bangalore, India, Doerenkamp-Zbinden Foundation, Switzerland, etc. Founded Indian Society for Alternatives to Animal Experiments, headquartered at National Centre for Alternatives to Animal Experiments (NCAAE), and is currently its General Secretary. Participated in World Congress for Alternatives 7 to 12, and Asia Congress 1 & 3.

